

A Heavenly Farewell Mother Evelyn Harrison

November 26, 1910 ~ September 2, 2003

I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course,
I kept the faith, henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of Righteousness, which the Lord, the Righteous Judge, shall give me at that day and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearance...

II Timothy 4: 7-8

“Safely Home”

I am home in heaven, dear one, oh so happy and so bright. There is perfect joy and beauty in this everlasting light. All the pain and grief is over, every restless tossing passed. I am now at peace forever, safely home in heaven at last. Then you must not grieve so sorely, for I love you dearly still. Try to look beyond death's shadow, pray to trust our Father's will. There is work still waiting for you, so you must not idly stand. Do it now while life remaineth; you shall rest in Jesus land. When that work is all completed, He will gently call you home. Oh, the rapture of that meeting, oh, the joy to see you come.

“The Grandmother Rose”

The Lord has plucked another flower out of the garden of life. This flower that was plucked was “The Grandmother Rose.”

The scent of that rose was so sweet during the early existence of the Harrison family, this rose bared is her bud six female seeds and six males.

She took all the sunshine and the rain to make her seeds blossom into a generation of beautiful flowers.

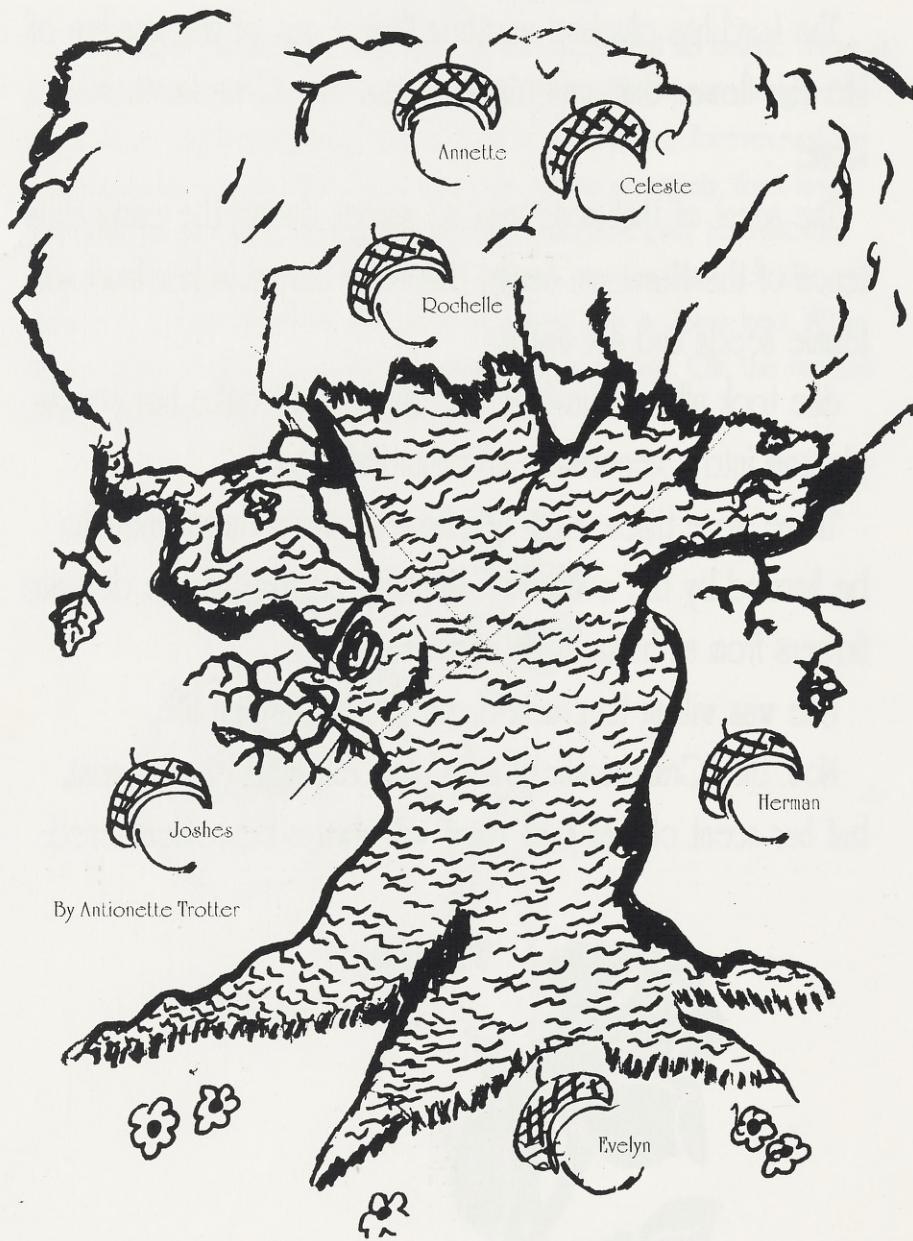

There were times when her flowers were threatened to be harmed by the evildoers, but she protected the delicate flowers from all hurts, harm and dangers.

She was willing to plucked out of the garden life.

Now, the “Grandmother Rose” has entered eternal rest, but her scent of that pink rose will always be remembered.

With Love,
Great Grandchild

"A Tribute to Our Aunt"

On the day that our beloved Evelyn Harrison God's magnificent sun, lit up the sky...and though our hearts...were cloudy and gray...WE...just couldn't ignore...that beautiful day! But in spite of the sun...that shone so bright, our grief was so dark as the darkest night. So God put some angels on the run, to mingle about us...and do what had to be done. You were one of those angels...and we want you to know...that years may come and years may go WE will never forget your kindness and your love.. Evelyn Harrison left us...on the wings of a dove!

Psalm 122

1. I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help.
2. My help cometh form the Lord, which made heaven and earth.
3. He will not suffer thy foot to be moved: he that keepth thee will not slumber.
4. Behold, he that keepth Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep.
5. The Lord is thy keeper; the Lord is they shade upon thy right hand.
6. The sun shall not smite they by day, nor the moon by night.
7. The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil; he shall perserve thy soul.
8. The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth, and even for evermore.

With much Love and Gratitude,
Annette, Celeste, Rochelle
